Run No 1530 Blunsdon Arms, Swindon. Hare : Caviar.

Snow, snow and then snow again, a hardy twenty folks and two dogs turned up at The Blunsdon Arms, Swindon for Caviar's run round the houses interspersed with green bits. She did have to change her route due to the white stuff. Most folks found pub easily except Frank and Marcus, the latter persuaded Fireraiser to pick him up, so at 8.30am, sandwiches, coffee, warm clothes and spades, off they did set for the great metropolis called Swindon, they went east, then west, they accosted runners, walkers, the odd policeman, a lady with a pram, searching for the holy grail, otherwise known as The Blunsdon Arms, but to no avail, Lydiard Park was mentioned as was Honda, finally they went North and lo and behold the pub. Phew!!!!!! Marcus flies off to New Zealand soon, hope he knows the way.

Caviar gave us the run down and Chris was reminded about "staying with the pack", mmmmmmm no chance. (But he did). Out and off, oops Flash caught short in the middle of the road, dageroo poo for GOM who was Gomwifeless, poorly person. GOM likes to share. Pink flour was followed by all here and there avoiding poo in various shapes and sizes (I notice these things), on, on's being called and all staying together quite well, I was impressed that lots of folks were checking, not just the same two or three.

Pickle said he would normally wear a thermal vest on a chilly morning but today he had his bullet proof vest on, it being Swindon. How rude!! A gentle run with no uphill, lovely, no water, lovely and no downhill, lovely. Well done the hare, well laid and well thought out.

Poor Fireraiser and Chris found the run a bit hard and had to have a wee sit down to rest, they looked like they needed a blanket. Talking of weeing why did some of the blokes keep disappearing into the undergrowth???? I expect extremities get cold quicker????!!!!!!

A fairly new hasher, Cherry poppings, was seen gathering green and growing things, for Marcus she said, hardy geraniums she said, mmmmmmm, Marcus does get folks to do strange things.

Educational note:- Booed off is unable to distinguish between arrow with OUT by it and arrow with IN against it, he is attending lessons, got the bags for that misdemeanour. No sheeps head, après was friendly and chatty, beer not up to our usual high standards and Co!!!!!! blimey Cara can down a pint.

Thanks Caviar.
