Venue: The George Inn, Birdlip
Hares: Mr Sheep & Dyldo
y/scribe: Claude

A good turnout on a rainy & cold evening.

The hares briefed the crowd about the three trails.

The harriers set off from the pub car park in all directions without immediate success; though a few minutes later someone found the trail into Witcombe Wood.
The muddy trail, more or less ran parallel to the Cotswold Way.

A walk uphill led us across the B 4070 and East on a bridleway across the country side, towards Blacklains farm.

By now the rain had eased off.

The trail, making use of a single road, turn South towards Longdole barn, then East again on a wet & muddy bridleway towards Brimpsfield.
A long/medium split was laid half a mile from the village.

A long / medium trail making use of public footpaths through grazing fields, took us to the edge of Birdlip.

Another long/ medium split extended the long run by another mile North of Birdlip.
