

CHURN VALLEY HASH HOUSE HARRIERS.

Run 1634

Fishfingers & Kippernick

Daneway

When I arrived at 10.55, I was surprised to see the car park less than half full. However by 11.00 it was filling up nicely with loads of Santas and others, keen to burn off some festive calories. I guess about 40 of us.

The hares have my total admiration for getting up so early on the morning after Christmas to lay the trail. Thank you both. I was also impressed that Pain in the Neck and Spearmint were there running, despite the fact that they were off on a skiing holiday in The Alps at 7 a.m. the following morning.

Although it was sunny when we set off, it was a bit chilly in the woods out of the sunshine. Up hill and down dale went the various trails, over ground that was very soft, muddy and slippery. I only saw two fallers:- KWhy and Growbag, but there were a few close calls.

I heard much complaining of aching limbs and I must admit my own tummy seemed a lot bigger than it was before Christmas.

Anyway, well laid trails as we would expect and I am sure we all felt better for having made the effort to get some fresh air and exercise.

The sun had come out by the time we returned to the Daneway and we were able to enjoy the après outside, where chocolate and lemon cake were on offer to supplement the beer!

No bags as Everill not in attendance – nice and quiet though! Sheeps head went to KWhy for his aforementioned fall.

Many thanks to the hares.
